

MIDNIGHT RAIN

music by BEPPE CANTARELLI - lyric by JIM FORD

We were at the edge of darkness
Clouds came rolling in Here comes another big one girl
Here we go again
Lightning flashed, thunder roared
A stormy love began
You and me babe, tenderly

(CHORUS)

In the MIDNIGHT...in the MIDNIGHT RAIN

We were searching for a shelter
To feed our hungry love
We fell into each other's arms
Like two moaning doves
I taste ou, you taste me
We'll never be the same
You and me babe, tenderly

(Repeat CHORUS TWICE)

(ISTRUMENTAL BRAKDOWN)

(BRIDGE)

You've come to me to set me free
I don't wanna be just another...
Just another one of your boy-toys
Don't say a word, just hold me tight
I've already heard enough rain tonight

(Repeat CHORUS TWICE)

At the sound of every hearthbeat
Another drop would fall
We teased and touched, just too much
Couldn't hold back o more
The games we play, the love we made
We'll never be the same
You and me babe....mmh...
You and me...tenderly

(Repeat CHORUS 4 TIMES)
